You can ask a CRB not to use or disclose credit information it holds about you without your consent for a period of 21 days (called a "ban period") or longer if an extension has been sought and agreed by the CRB if you believe on reasonable grounds that you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud, including identity fraud. CRBs may use credit information they hold to respond to requests from us or other credit providers to "pre-screen" you for direct marketing. You can ask a CRB not to do this. However, if you are a borrower you may still receive direct marketing from us (unless you ask us not to) that has not been "pre-screened".
